

Progress toward Graduation - Online B.S. in SFF

Please use this table to track your own progress toward graduation
This is not an "official" record of your progress. Check with your adviser!

The Bachelor of Sciences degree in Sustainable Food and Farming requires students to take courses in four categories:

1. University General Education Requirements (45 credits) SEE Gen Ed TRACKING SHEET which was emailed separately
2. Core Required Classes (22-23 credits) SEE BELOW
3. Agricultural Science and Practice Classes (24 credits) SEE BELOW
4. Professional Electives (20 credits) SEE BELOW

Requirement	Semester	Credits	Grade
Core Required Classes (26-31 credits)
A. STOCKSCH 108 - Intro to Botany (4)	_____	_____	_____
B. STOCKSCH 106 - Soil Science and Management (3)	_____	_____	_____
C. Ecosystem Course – Choose one:
• STOCKSCH 186 - Introduction to Permaculture (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 378 - Agroecology (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 510 - Management & Ecology of Plant Diseases (3)	_____	_____	_____
D. MATH 104 - Alg/Anal Geo/Trig (3)	_____	_____	_____
or both MATH 101 (2) and MATH 102 (2)	_____	_____	_____
E. University approved R2 - Analytical Reasoning Class (3)	_____	_____	_____
F. STOCKSCH 117 - Agricultural Chemistry (3)	_____	_____	_____
G. Take one course in food/land policy or agricultural education
• STOCKSCH 288 – Land Use Policies & Sustainable Farming (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 297 AL –Ag Leadership & Community Ed (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 297 FL – Intro to Food and Agricultural Law (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 355 - Community Food Systems(3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 356 – Food Justice and Policy (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 387 – Global Food Systems (3)	_____	_____	_____
• STOCKSCH 397R – Social Permaculture for Food Justice (3)	_____	_____	_____

Agricultural Science & Practice Classes (24 credits)

100 Level Classes (6 credits may count toward the major from this list and anything over 6 counts towards Professional Electives)

200 - 400 Level Classes (at least 12 credits may count toward the major from this list)

500 Level Classes (at least 6 credits required from this list or other departments with approval)
